Psalm 23:6, page 423

In life...

After death...

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Digging Deeper

1. Usually we think of ourselves as the ones who need to seek God. How does it affect your understanding of God to think of Him as the one who seeks us? (Psalm 23:6; Genesis 3:9; Luke 19:10; John 4:23)
2. Why is home a good image to describe heaven? (Psalm 23:6; John 14:1-6)
3. How does thinking about the reality of heaven affect the way you live today? Do you ever feel homesick for heaven? Explain.
4. Reread Psalm 23:1-6. What have you learned about God? Turn this into prayers of praise. What have you learned about yourself? Turn this into prayers for yourself others.
