Winter Camp

January 20-22, 2012

1:20

What is winter camp?

Three exciting action packed days in a winter wonderland. You will get to enjoy snowball fights, tobogganing, broomball, awesome chapel time, digging deeper into God’s Word, and hanging out with the coolest student ministry ever. For those who aren’t crazy about the outdoors there is a café, game room, and gym for you to hang out in.

Lodging and Meals

We will be staying in comfortable cabin style rooms. Please list any preferences you have for friends that you want to room with on your registration form. Five meals will be provided. There is also a coffee shop where you can purchase warm beverages and snacks or you can bring snacks from home.

Leaving and returning

We plan to leave by 5:30 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 20. Be at the church no later than 5:00 p.m. We will not be stopping for dinner so please eat before you arrive. We will return sometime between 3:00 and 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, Jan. 22. Please arrange to be picked up from the church at that time.

What do I need to bring?

Humans have no fur; therefore you need warm clothes, warm socks, boots, and additional clothes to change into when you are done playing in the snow...unless of course you prefer the cold soggy look. Also bring bathroom essentials, towels, pillows and bedding for a single bunk bed. Most importantly, bring a Bible and notebook. Please remember, what you bring is what you carry, so please pack as lightly as possible.

What will it cost?

For $135 you get three days of lodging and five meals. You will also receive a zip-up hooded sweatshirt. Some activities, such as paint ball and the giant swing cost extra. If you would like to participate in any of these activities, please mark on the registration form and add the extra cost to your final payment. These activities are first come first serve and will fill up fast.

How do I sign up?

Turn in the registration form, medical release forms, and a $50 deposit to the youth ministry staff no later than Dec. 21, 2011. Final payment is due Jan. 11, 2012.
