

Bill Rieser

Sunday, July 20

9:15 and 10:45

He had everything going for him,
but God had a different plan...

*A basketball star at both the high school and college levels, he was destined for the NBA until injury, conflict with coaches, and a fast and furious
lifestyle threatened his future.*

You won't want to miss his amazing story!

(over)

Bill Rieser

Sunday, July 20

9:15 and 10:45

He had everything going for him,
but God had a different plan...

*A basketball star at both the high school and college levels, he was destined for the NBA until
injury, conflict with coaches, and a fast and furious
lifestyle threatened his future.*

You won't want to miss his amazing story!

(over)

Bill Rieser is a native of New York City. He was a star of high school basketball and was highly recruited by major colleges. He was reported to have a 47-inch vertical leap and could dunk a basketball any way he chose. He had a pro agent and seemed destined to play in the NBA. Everyone thought his story was already written that way, but God had other plans for Bill's life.

In the coming years, injury, college transfer, conflict with coaches, and broken promises made their home in Bill's life. The basketball career he had come to expect was over.

He spent the next fifteen years building up resentment for all that had gone wrong in his life and blaming everyone but himself. Things were spiraling out of control, and he was facing total devastation, when the life he had been leading for years was exposed to his wife.

He saw God's hand on his life for the first time as she told him she was willing to give him another chance if he would accept Jesus as his Savior and give his life to Christ. The change was dramatic, as he surrendered everything to God and completely turned away from his old life to a new life in Christ.

Bill may have lost the gift to play basketball, but he found the most important gift of all in God's gift of salvation through Jesus Christ. He's looking up these days and it's safe to say...his vertical reaches further than he could have ever imagined.

Bill Rieser is a native of New York City. He was a star of high school basketball and was highly recruited by major colleges. He was reported to have a 47-inch vertical leap and could dunk a basketball any way he chose. He had a pro agent and seemed destined to play in the NBA. Everyone thought his story was already written that way, but God had other plans for Bill's life.

In the coming years, injury, college transfer, conflict with coaches, and broken promises made their home in Bill's life. The basketball career he had come to expect was over.

He spent the next fifteen years building up resentment for all that had gone wrong in his life and blaming everyone but himself. Things were spiraling out of control, and he was facing total devastation, when the life he had been leading for years was exposed to his wife.

He saw God's hand on his life for the first time as she told him she was willing to give him another chance if he would accept Jesus as his Savior and give his life to Christ. The change was dramatic, as he surrendered everything to God and completely turned away from his old life to a new life in Christ.

Bill may have lost the gift to play basketball, but he found the most important gift of all in God's gift of salvation through Jesus Christ. He's looking up these days and it's safe to say...his vertical reaches further than he could have ever imagined.