PRAYING FOR EACH OTHER

Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" Matthew 4:4

As we study Christ's passion, death and resurrection this season pray that His glory will shine brightly through us to a watching and hurting world.

Praise God, Will Holm's heart surgery went well and Will is now home. Please pray for increased strength, safety, and pain management each day. And, please pray that Will experiences the closeness and care of his Savior as he recovers.

Please pray for Al Pasternak who is now at Shirley Ryan Ability Lab for therapy. Please pray that Al receives deep and healing sleep each night as he recovers and works to increase his strength and endurance. Please pray for strength for Andrea, his wife and caregiver. And, pray for peace of mind and heart for both of them.

Pray continue to pray for our Outreach Partners (Ted, Alya, and Dave) as they minister to Ukrainian refugees as they cross the border to safety, as they bring loads of aid and relief supplies to the border, and as they visit those they ministered to who are now relocated in Poland. Please pray that God will bless their work and that the comfort and hope they offer will point Ukrainian refugees to Christ.

Please pray for the people of Ukraine, those that have fled and those that remain, to experience God's protection and comfort like never before. Pray that many will come to know the unshakable hope found in Christ and His gospel and that this hope will bring courage to those feeling hopeless and afraid. And, finally, pray for peace in Ukraine.

Praise God that Wanda Mejia did get results from ongoing testing and has learned she has a rare, yet contained, type of cancer. Please pray for continued wisdom as they conduct a few more tests to determine if any further intervention is needed.

Pray for South Park Church as we faithfully seek God's will for the next pastor of our church. Pray that God would begin preparing the hearts of the congregation for whomever He would lead to be the next Senior Pastor.

Continue to pray for: Dawn Phillips, Kathy Palansky
